Regular meeting of Bright Star Rebekah lodge, No. 18, Wednesday evening, June 18, at 8 o'clock.

Regular monthly meeting of tool sharpeners' branch, No. 2, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock in polishers' hall.

Regular meeting of the ladies of Clan Gordon will be held Tuesday, June 17, at 7 o'clock to allow members to attend prize speaking. Initiation.

Largest line of new and second-hand ranges in Barre. Perfection and Korogas oil stoves, wicks and ovens. Call and get prices. E. A. Prindle, Worthen block.

Miss Jessie McLean, a nurse at the City hospital, Hartford, Conn., arrived in the city yesterday. She is visiting friends in this city and her parents in Williamstown.

P. A. Noonan, of the Perry & Noonan undertaking establishment on Depot square, who for the past few weeks has been confined to his home by illness, was able to be downtown yesterday for the first time.

Moses Ceresoli of Quarry street has obtained employment in Quincy, Mass., and left this morning to begin his new work. Two months ago he arrived from France with the 26th division after many months' service.

FOUND—At E. A. Drown & Co.'s drug store, Parisian Sage, a delightful non-greasy tonic for hair and scalp, that cures dandruff, prevents baldness and gives a luxuriant head of hair. Sold on money-back plan—adv.

The body of Pietro Duchini, who died at U. S. general hospital No. 19 at Oteen, N. C., last week of tuberculosis, arrived in the city yesterday. It was accompanied by Walter H. Thorpe, a member of the medical corps of that hospital. This afternoon at 2 o'clock the funeral was to be held from the Perry & Noonan undertaking rooms on Depot square.

The Cobble Hill school had its closing exercises before a large audience Friday evening. After the exercises the school turned the evening into a surprise reception for Miss Mary Camire, when they presented her a piece of silver and a cut glass dish. Miss Camire responded feelingly and the party broke up at a late hour, extending their best wishes.

Miss Marjorie Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Andrews of Maple Grove, who has been teaching at the Chelsea high school, returned to her home Saturday after the school sessions for the year ended. With her came Miss Florence Beebe, another teacher of the school, who was the guest of Miss Andrews for the past few days. Yesterday Miss Beebe returned to her home in Swanton.

Others not mentioned yesterday who took part in the confirmation services at St. Monica's church Sunday, when Rt. Rev. J. J. Rice, D. D., bishop of Burlington, officiated, were Edward Hamel, who was one of the four young men who waited on the bishop, and J. A. Healey and Miss McKenna, who acted as sponsors for the boys and girls. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Smith, sang the different parts of the mass, with solos by James Bennett and Mrs. Smith, and with Miss Lorraine Loranger presiding at the organ. Every part, both solos and choruses, was beautifully rendered. Great credit is due the pastor, Rev. P. M. McKenna, who has for so many years labored so untriflingly for all of his congregation, especially his children.

The civic committee of the Barre Woman's club is planning to hold its peony show and antique exhibit Friday afternoon and Saturday of this week in the Church street schoolhouse. All those having flowers to contribute try to bring them to the schoolhouse Friday morning. If not convenient to do so, call 93-M. If leave name and street number and someone will call. The committee would consider it a favor if the flowers were cut and ready by 9:30 Friday morning. Other flowers besides peonies are acceptable. If you have some old historical things that you prize greatly, just loan to us for this occasion. Call Mrs. W. J. Clapp, who has charge of the antique exhibit. Many ladies are planning to dress in antique costume and tea will be served from cups over 150 years old. The cakes will be quite new. Come and try them and enjoy the beautiful flowers.

The Barre Historical society, Inc., is placing some tablets in the city and town of Barre to mark sites of historic interest. One indicates the junction of the old post and stage roads; one the location of the first public building erected in Washington county; one shows where Barre's first "stocks" were located; one marks the site of Major Ira Day's mansion, where Marquis de Lafayette was entertained in 1824; one is on the barn where occurred the historic "fight," which changed the name of this town from Wildersburg to Barre; and one is at the old burying ground, where the first settlers of the town made their "pitch," as it was then called. Permission to do this was obtained last spring of the city council and selectmen of the town, but owing to various delays the tablets were not in place until yesterday. The erection of these tablets is made possible by the generosity of John Gale Morrison, who has entirely financed the work.

SOUTH BARRE

TALK OF THE TOWN

Miss Rose Carter of Rochester is visiting Mrs. R. D. Carpenter of Prospect street.

Poison! Farmers, attention! If you use paris green in 50-lb. lots, ask us for quotations. N. D. Phelps Co.

Miss Hazel Ogston, Miss Minnie Ironside and Miss Mary Smart went yesterday to Bethlehem, N. H., to remain during the summer months.

Harold Batchelder and his brother of Plainfield caught a rainbow trout, measuring 22 inches and weighing 3½ pounds, at Niggerhead pond recently. Another trout measuring 20 inches and weighing 2½ pounds was also caught.

Alumni, former students, faculty, seniors, juniors of Spaulding, together with their husbands, wives or sweethearts, are hereby cordially invited to the alumni ball to be held in S. H. S. assembly hall, June 18. Tickets, $1; extra ladies 50c.

C. D. and Frederick Allen, two nephews of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilbert of 19 French street, who have been enjoying a two weeks' stay in this city, returned yesterday afternoon to Lachine, Quebec. Both young men were Canadian soldiers and could tell many interesting incidents in connection with the war and their experiences.

Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Jarvis have returned from Atlantic City, N. J., where they remained for the past week while Dr. Jarvis attended the annual convention of the American Medical association. Upon their return trip a stop was made at Burlington for their daughter, Sylvia, who was the guest of her grandparents for the past two weeks.

After working all yesterday morning two Montpelier officers, sent to Barre to round up the lads connected with the break at the Gun club house between Barre and Montpelier Saturday, succeeded in bringing six North Barre lads into court; but when the matter was boiled down and the real culprits brought to light, only two were guilty. Had the two lads disclosed the true facts to court at first, a fine amounting to about $4.50 would have freed them. Their stories, contradicted by themselves, cost them a liberal fine and extra costs, amounting to $33.05. Both Raul Vezzoni and Americo Guidici, the two lads charged with petty larceny, were, besides being fined, sentenced to not less than one month nor more than three months. The sentence was suspended, however, and the two released on probation, which will last until the end of their minority or further proceedings of the court.

WILLIAMSTOWN

L. Marshall Jackson and family of Barre were in town over the week end, as the guests of W. H. Lougee.

M. C. Hutchinson of Burlington post-office is having a vacation and was lately in town with his mother, Mrs. Annie Hutchinson.

William E. Morrison, who has been off duty for several days from the Downs store on account of blood poisoning from a scratch in the hand, is somewhat better, though the wound is healing slowly. John Stewart, who received a serious wound in the foot several months ago in the world war, was in town last week for a brief visit to friends.

Program for grange meeting Wednesday evening, June 18: Selection from grange melodies, "Pleasure and Profit Obtained from My Garden" will be discussed by George Holden and Samuel Wales; vocal solo, Miss Irma Cheney; question, "What Is the Most Profitable Method of Milk Disposition?" to be opened by Theron Williams; "Fruit, Salads and How to Make Them," by the sisters of the grange; closing song, by the girls of the grange. Mrs. Hattie Goodrich, lecturer, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Holt of Barre are now living in town for the summer, and have made a number of improvements in the interior arrangement of their house on South Main street, known for a long time as the home of Mrs. Holt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Earle.

Clyde Morse has returned to Sheldon, Vt., where he was employed for some time earlier in the season. He is to have a substantial increase in his wages and now has the refusal of a tenant in that town. It is expected that he will move there later.

Mrs. Mary Davis, who has been quite ill at the home of Mrs. Lucy Whitney, is gaining a little. Miss Lena Thurber is her nurse.

When we say it's good it is good

When we tell you a certain article of food is good for you to eat, you can depend on it.

We know foods.

And we know brands.

We've made it our business to study them so we can talk to you with real authority.

We know foods and groceries as a doctor knows diseases and remedies—we are specialists in our line.

This knowledge of ours is invaluable to you, yet it costs you nothing.

Everything in our store reflects this knowledge. We stock only those groceries and provisions which we know will please you and keep you coming to our store.

One of these things is RYZON Baking Powder.

We recommend this baking powder to you because we feel perfectly sure that you will like it better than any you've ever used. It is pure, it is efficient, and costs but 40 cents a full pound tin.
